EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of the sales manager at PRESTIGE MOTORS, a luxury car brand known for producing high-performance vehicles with cutting-edge technology and exceptional craftsmanship. The regional director (judge) has tasked you with improving the sales team's approach to increase the conversion rate of showroom visitors into buyers.

PRESTIGE MOTORS offers a range of luxury vehicles, including sedans, SUVs, and electric models. The flagship model, a fully electric luxury sedan, is priced at $120,000. Customers can also choose from a variety of premium upgrades, such as custom interiors, advanced driver-assistance features, and extended warranties. The brand's unique selling points include exclusive customization options, a superior after-sales service package, and a 5-year complimentary maintenance program.

Although PRESTIGE MOTORS cars are highly desirable, many showroom visitors are hesitant to commit due to the price, often opting for competitors that offer slightly lower-priced vehicles. The regional director (judge) has observed that the sales team struggles to effectively communicate the long-term value and prestige associated with owning one of these vehicles. Additionally, the sales team has not been consistently promoting the premium upgrades that would increase the average sale value.

The regional director (judge) wants you to design a sales training session that will equip the team with strategies to showcase the long-term benefits and luxury lifestyle associated with owning a PRESTIGE MOTORS vehicle. The training should also cover how to effectively upsell premium features and packages to enhance the customer's experience.

You will present your sales training plan to the regional director (judge) in a meeting to take place in the director's (judge's) office. The regional director (judge) will begin the meeting by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented your plan and answered the director's (judge's) questions, the director (judge) will conclude the meeting by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. How do you plan to train the sales team to effectively upsell premium features, like custom interiors or advanced driver-assistance packages, without overwhelming the customer?
2. What role will after-sales service and customer experience play in your training?
