EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of a sales associate at PAGE TURNERS, a local independent bookstore in a city of 900,000 citizens that has recently seen a decline in sales due to increased competition from online retailers. The store manager (judge) has asked you to develop a plan to boost book sales, particularly focusing on promoting new releases and local authors.

PAGE TURNERS is a local independent bookstore that features a diverse selection of bestsellers and new releases across various genres, catering to all reading preferences. The store proudly showcases a special section dedicated to local authors, which includes opportunities for events and signings to connect the community with its literary talents. To enhance customer loyalty, PAGE TURNERS offers a loyalty program that provides discounts to frequent shoppers. Additionally, the bookstore features cozy reading areas designed to encourage customers to browse, relax, and immerse themselves in the joy of reading.

The store manager (judge) is seeking innovative ideas to boost sales and attract more customers to PAGE TURNERS. They are particularly interested in creative marketing strategies that can effectively highlight new releases and local authors, fostering a sense of community engagement. Additionally, the manager wants to explore ways to enhance customer interaction during in-store events and signings, ensuring that these occasions are not only well-attended but also memorable for participants. Lastly, the store manager aims to leverage social media platforms to promote upcoming releases and local author events, increasing the store's visibility and drawing in a wider audience.

You will present your plan to the store manager (judge) in a meeting at PAGE TURNERS. The store manager (judge) will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After your presentation, you will answer the store manager's (judge's) questions, and they will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. How do you intend to leverage social media effectively to promote both new releases and local author events?
2. What incentives can you provide to encourage customers to participate in the loyalty program?
