EVENT SITUATION

You are assuming the roles of the Director of Human Resources and the Employee Engagement Manager for SPARK, a tech startup specializing in developing innovative educational software solutions for K-12 institutions. The CEO (judge) has expressed concern about SPARK's organizational culture and tasked your team with addressing the issue.

SPARK has experienced rapid growth over the past two years, expanding from a team of 15 to a workforce of over 100 employees. This rapid expansion has resulted in a diverse workforce representing various age groups, cultural backgrounds, and skill sets. While this diversity is seen as a strength, it has also led to challenges in establishing a unified and positive organizational culture.

Several recent employee surveys have indicated that:

- There is a perceived lack of communication and transparency from leadership.
- Employees feel siloed within their departments and lack opportunities for cross-functional collaboration.
- There is a sense of disconnect between senior management and newer employees, leading to misunderstandings and frustrations.

The CEO (judge) has requested that your team develop a comprehensive plan to improve SPARK's organizational culture. This plan should include:

- An analysis of the current organizational culture, identifying strengths and weaknesses..
- Initiatives to bridge the generational gap and promote inclusivity.
- Metrics for evaluating the effectiveness of the proposed solutions.

You will present your analysis and recommendations to the CEO (judge) in a formal meeting. The CEO will start the meeting by expressing their concerns and expectations for the plan. After your presentation, the CEO will ask questions to assess your understanding of the situation and the feasibility of your recommendations. Finally, the CEO will conclude the meeting by providing feedback and thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. How will your proposed initiatives address the generational gap and promote inclusivity across such a diverse workforce?
2. What challenges do you foresee in implementing your plan, and how will you mitigate these potential obstacles?
