EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of the social media manager for GAME ON, an online gaming platform that hosts a variety of multiplayer games. The chief marketing officer (judge) wants you to develop a strategy to expand GAME ON's presence on social media, particularly through platforms like Twitch and YouTube.

GAME ON has been in operation for three years and has built a dedicated user base, but it is looking to increase its visibility and attract new gamers. With the rise of live-streaming and gaming content on platforms like Twitch and YouTube, the company wants to leverage these channels to engage with the gaming community, showcase its games, and promote upcoming tournaments.

The chief marketing officer (judge) is eager to hear your ideas on how to enhance GAME ON's social media strategy to reach a wider audience. The chief marketing officer wants you to include:

- A description of the target audience for the social media expansion.
- Two specific tactics to increase engagement and followers on platforms like Twitch and YouTube.
- A creative slogan or hashtag that can be used to unify the campaign and encourage participation.

You will present your ideas to the chief marketing officer (judge) in a role-play to take place in the marketing office. The chief marketing officer (judge) will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented your ideas and answered the chief marketing officer's (judge's) questions, the chief marketing officer (judge) will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. What metrics or KPIs will you use to measure the success of your proposed engagement tactics on platforms like Twitch and YouTube?
2. How would you address potential challenges you foresee with implementing these social media strategies?
