EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of the MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER for URBAN WHEELZ, a micromobility company that rents electric scooters and bicycles in mid-sized cities. The DIRECTOR OF MARKETING (judge) wants you to develop a communications campaign to educate users on proper parking etiquette to secure a contract renewal with the city.

URBAN WHEELZ operates a fleet of 2,000 electric scooters and 500 e-bikes that users can rent via a mobile app. The service is highly popular with college students and young professionals for "last mile" transportation. However, the company has faced criticism from city officials and local business owners regarding "sidewalk clutter." Users frequently leave scooters blocking wheelchair ramps, store entrances, and the middle of sidewalks.

The city council is voting on the renewal of URBAN WHEELZ's operating permit next month. To ensure the permit is renewed, the company must demonstrate a commitment to solving the parking issue.

The DIRECTOR OF MARKETING (judge) wants you to create a "Park It Right" promotional campaign. The goal is to change user behavior through positive reinforcement and clear communication, rather than just imposing fines. The Director (judge) wants your plan to include:

- Key Messaging: How to communicate the "Park It Right" rules without sounding negative or authoritative.
- Communication Channels: Specific digital and physical channels to reach the active user base.
- Incentives: A marketing strategy to reward compliant behavior.
- Public Relations: A method to show the city council and general public (non-riders) that URBAN WHEELZ is listening and acting responsibly.

You will present your ideas to the DIRECTOR OF MARKETING (judge) in a role-play to take place in the Director's (judge's) office. The Director (judge) will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented ideas and have answered the Director's (judge's) questions, the Director (judge) will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. How can we use our mobile app to help enforce or promote this new campaign?
2. How will we measure if this communications campaign is actually reducing the number of parking complaints?
