EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of the MARKETING MANAGER for CRISP CHICKEN, a regional quick-serve restaurant chain specializing in fried chicken tenders and sandwiches. The FRANCHISE OWNER (judge) wants you to develop a promotional plan to launch a new "Late Night Cravings" window.

CRISP CHICKEN has traditionally closed its doors at 10:00 PM. However, the restaurant is located near a large university campus and several entertainment venues. Competitors in the area who stay open late have reported significant profits during the post-10:00 PM hours. To capture this market share, the FRANCHISE OWNER (judge) has decided to keep the drive-thru open until 3:00 AM on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, starting next month.

To ensure operational efficiency during these late hours, the kitchen will utilize a limited menu featuring only the three most popular items: the Classic Chicken Sandwich, Spicy Tenders, and Waffle Fries.

The FRANCHISE OWNER (judge) wants you to develop a promotional plan to announce the new "Late Night Cravings" hours. The goal is to specifically target the university demographic and event-goers without alienating the daytime family crowd. The owner wants the plan to rely heavily on digital engagement and cost-effective strategies.

You will present your ideas to the FRANCHISE OWNER (judge) in a role-play to take place in the owner's office. The owner will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented ideas and have answered the owner's questions, the owner will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. How can we incentivize customers to download our app as part of this launch?
2. How can we ensure that our late-night promotion does not negatively impact our reputation as a family-friendly restaurant during the day?
