EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of the Marketing Manager for THE GILDED OAK, a traditional four-star fine dining restaurant known for its white-tablecloth service and 10-course tasting menus. The Owner (judge) wants you to develop a promotional plan to attract a new target market: Millennials.

THE GILDED OAK has been a staple in the city for 25 years. The current clientele is loyal but aging, primarily consisting of customers aged 60+. The Owner (judge) is concerned about the long-term sustainability of the business and wants to capture the Millennial market (ages 28–43).

However, market research indicates that local Millennials view THE GILDED OAK as "stuffy," "too formal," and "outdated." They prefer "experiences," authenticity, and locally sourced food, often documenting their meals on social media.

The Owner (judge) wants you to create a promotional plan that re-positions the four-star dining experience to appeal to Millennials without lowering the price point or quality. The owner does not want to turn the restaurant into a casual eatery but wants to make the luxury experience relevant to this generation.

The Owner (judge) has asked you to include the following in your plan:

- A specific "experience" or event concept that would appeal to Millennials (e.g., a Chef's Table, a farm-to-table showcase, or a mixology class).
- A social media strategy, specifically focusing on Instagram or visual platforms, to change the "stuffy" perception.
- How to highlight "locally sourced" or "healthy" ingredients to appeal to Millennial values.
- Use of technology for reservations or engagement.

You will present your ideas to the Owner (judge) in a role-play to take place in the owner's office. The owner will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented ideas and have answered the owner's questions, the owner will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

Potential Judge's Questions:

1. Millennials often book vacations and experiences last minute. How can we use technology to fill empty tables on short notice?
2. How do we prove to this generation that we are authentic and not just a rebranded, old restaurant?
