You are to assume the role of a recruiting assistant at LINKWAY STAFFING, an agency that places workers in office and business jobs. A high school senior (judge) wants to work in business administration and has asked you for advice.

The senior (judge) has applied for six entry-level office jobs and summer internships and hasn't heard back from any of them. The senior (judge) has good grades and is treasurer of a school club, but has never had a paid job. The senior (judge) doesn't know any adults who work in business. The senior (judge) has a public social media account with mostly personal photos and videos, and doesn't have a professional profile.

The senior (judge) wants you to explain ways to gain work experience, how to network to find job openings, where to find reliable career information and how to use social media professionally.

You will present the information to the senior (judge) in a meeting at the LINKWAY office. The senior (judge) will begin the meeting by greeting you and asking for advice. After you have presented the information and answered the senior's (judge's) questions, the senior (judge) will conclude the meeting by thanking you for your help.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. How can I get experience when every job wants experience?
2. How should I follow up on the six applications I already sent?
