EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of a member services associate at THE COMMONS, a coworking space where small businesses and freelancers rent desks, offices and meeting rooms. The general manager (judge) wants your ideas for fixing a growing problem.

Members book meeting rooms through an online calendar, at the front desk or by email to staff. In the past month, members have been double-booked for meeting rooms 11 times. Twice, members arrived with clients and had no room to meet. Three members have posted negative online reviews, and one has threatened to cancel their membership. Staff members say they are too busy to check the calendar every time someone emails a request.

The general manager (judge) wants you to identify the cause of the problem, decide on the best solution, suggest creative ideas to prevent double-booking and explain how to win back frustrated members.

You will present your ideas to the general manager (judge) in the manager's office. The general manager (judge) will begin the meeting by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented your ideas and answered the general manager's (judge's) questions, the general manager (judge) will conclude the meeting by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. If we can only make one change this week, what should it be and why?
2. Some members prefer to email us rather than use the online calendar. How would you handle that?
