EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of a shift lead at BEAN THERE COFFEE, a locally owned coffee shop. The owner (judge) has asked you to share ideas for how employees can improve customer relations.

For 10 years, BEAN THERE COFFEE has been known for its friendly staff who greet regular customers by name. Last month, a large coffee chain opened across the street with lower prices and a drive-thru. Since then, BEAN THERE COFFEE has lost some of its regular customers. Recent online reviews also say that employees seem rushed and less friendly than they used to be.

The owner (judge) believes that customer service is what makes BEAN THERE COFFEE different from the chain. The owner (judge) wants you to explain why positive customer relations matter, how employees can build relationships with customers, and how the owner can encourage employees to provide great service every day.

You will present your ideas to the owner (judge) in a role-play to take place at the coffee shop. The owner (judge) will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented your ideas and have answered the owner's (judge's) questions, the owner (judge) will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. Why would a customer pay more for coffee here instead of going to the chain?
2. How can employees build relationships with customers when we are busy during the morning rush?
