EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of an insurance agent at RIVERBEND INSURANCE. A renter (judge) who does not have renter's insurance has become worried after a neighbor had to pay for damage to another apartment.

The renter (judge) lives in a second-floor apartment in an older building. Last month, a washing machine hose burst in a neighbor's apartment. The water leaked through the floor and damaged the ceiling, furniture and electronics in the apartment below. The neighbor was held responsible for paying for the damage.

The renter (judge) has never bought renter's insurance because they assumed the landlord's insurance covered everything in the building. The renter (judge) is also adopting a large dog next month.

Before making a decision, the renter (judge) wants you to explain the following:

- In what situations could the renter (judge) be responsible for injuries or damage to other people or their property?
- What kinds of losses does renter's insurance cover?
- What factors will affect how much renter's insurance will cost?

You will present the information to the renter (judge) in a role-play to take place in your office. The renter (judge) will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking about renter's insurance. After you have presented the information and have answered the renter's (judge's) questions, the renter (judge) will conclude the meeting by thanking you for your work.

Possible Judge's Questions:

1. If someone breaks into my car and steals my laptop, which policy would pay for it?
2. Will I save money if I buy my auto insurance and renter's insurance from the same company?
